Long-Term Care Houses

▲ The walkways surrounding the long-term care houses have been prepped, and cement is being poured.

Long-Term Care Houses

▲ The large living rooms in Cedarbrook's two-bedroom apartments offer plenty of room for easy entertaining.

▲ Cedarbrook's parlor is conveniently located adjacent to the main lounge. The room is the perfect size for family parties, and can be reserved for special events.

▲ The main lounge at Cedarbrook is now complete! The two-sided stone and oak fireplace will offer an ideal meeting place for tenants and visitors.

▲ The community building, located in the center of the long-term care campus, is progressing quickly! Windows are already in place, and sheetrock is being installed on the walls and ceilings.

◀ The fireplace in the living room of this long-term care house is now complete. Adorned with oak and tile, it will offer an inviting gathering place for residents.
