

EXPANSION Updates

FEBRUARY 2009

▲ This is a look at Cedarbrook's grand dining room. With an executive chef on staff, tenants will have at least two delicious meals each day included in their rent. Meals will also be available for purchase. Tenants are starting to move into Cedarbrook, and soon the dining room will be quite busy! More than half of Cedarbrook's apartments are currently rented.

▲ Construction continues in the long-term care houses. Each house has a large living room with a gas fireplace. As you can see, ceiling lights have been installed and walls have also been painted!

▲ A great deal of progress has been made in the kitchens of the long-term care houses. Each house will have plenty of cabinet space!

◀ Carpets have been installed in the sitting rooms, which are located at the front of each house. Drop ceilings have also been added, and recessed lighting is now in place.

◀ Oak handrails line the wide hallways of the long-term care houses. As you can see, the lights are also in place and the walls are nearly finished.

All long-term care residents will ▶ have their own private bathroom connected to their bedroom. Showers and toilets have been installed, and floor tiling is complete.
